

Basic Floral Art Studio

Learn how to organize flowers into a lovely centerpiece for your table.

Let District 8 Judges Council show you how. We are happy to be back designing again!

Save the dates for Basic Floral Art Studio. This is a two-session program to be held on two Saturdays, March 26 and April 2, 2022 from 9am – 12 noon at Amherst Presbyterian Church, located near Erie Community College North Campus.

Floral Art Studio will teach you the principles of basic flower design emphasizing the three most popular styles of arrangement over the course of two sessions. This program is provided as a foundation for the flower design novice. Containers, supplies, flowers, and expert guidance for both sessions will be included for one $75 fee. The sessions will be hands-on, and every student goes home with her own work of floral art at the end of each session.

Basic Floral Art Studio is open to all Garden Club members in District 8, and fulfills the requirements for a certificate in “Basic Flower Design” from Judges Council.

Space is limited. Register today! For more information please contact: Mary Brummer, Chair at (716)662-2406 or at for200@aol.com.

Masks may be required, depending on local Health Department recommendations at the time.
